Get the Gatsby Look

BY GENE MENEZ

Although the Roaring '20s were almost a century ago, the glitzy, glamorous and grand style of that period is back. Baz Luhrmann's adaptation of The Great Gatsby and its over-the-top styling of sets and wardrobes have returned the art deco, luxe look of Gatsby's universe to the forefront.

Because of the movie's much-awaited release, local stores had anticipated an increased interest in art deco-type furnishings that would make Jay and Daisy feel at home. (Arhaus even devoted a section to them.) These usually have simple, geometric or rounded silhouettes, luxurious finishes and fancy ornamentation.

Seating

This Terry Polston-built home in Lakeway is perfect for a party because it has an outdoor area fit for royalty. It has enough space to create multiple seating areas, which is ideal since some guests socialize while others dine and even lounge.

Buying chairs can be a challenge because not all are comfortable, resistant to outdoor elements and stylish at the same time. And stools are must-have pieces because they have the versatility to work as side tables, ottomans or extra seating. ■
